Allmendinger AJ is a racing veteran who holds multiple victories among NASCAR's top-tier series. Allmendinger earned Kaulig Racing their second career win during the 2019 Xfinity Series season at the Charlotte ROVAL, additionally scoring two top-five finishes in his five starts with the team. In 2020, Allmendinger placed first at Atlanta Motor Speedway and won the NASCAR Xfinity Series Dash 4 Cash bonus at Homestead-Miami Speedway. He went on to earn a back-to-back win at the Charlotte ROVAL for Kaulig Racing, tying teammate, Justin Haley, for most wins at Kaulig Racing. In 2021, AJ won the Las Vegas Alsco Uniforms 300 and looks to build on that success throughout the season. Allmendinger has over 410 career starts across all three NASCAR series, a milestone that helps represent his successful career, which began in 2006. In addition to being a professional athlete, Allmendinger is an analyst for NBC Sports covering the International Motor Sports Association (IMSA) and NASCAR America. When not behind the wheel or on camera, the California native enjoys golfing and being a dad to his four-legged children, Mr. Tickles and Xena.
